The special meeting was convened to hold a police hearing.

The Mayor stated that a motion had been made by Ms. Mary Sharp, the counsel for the police officer, requesting fifteen (15) days to respond to a Motion In Limine that had been filed by the Government.

Ms. Sharp spoke about the time frame required to respond to motions, and requested a continuance for the hearing.

Ms. Leslye Bowman, counsel for the Government, stated that the Government had no objection to the motion to continue the hearing at a later date.

The Mayor stated that the meeting would be rescheduled to a day and time agreed to by both parties and the Council.
